EDITOR'S NOTES: Symbolism on the Seals: Terry Van Order of Wausau provided me with this information.

On the Obverse of the Great Seal of the United States (as viewed on the right side of the back of our one dollar bill) The eagle represents Victory, Power and Authority. The unsupported shield shows self reliance. There are (on the seal itself) 13 red and white stripes for the original 13 states. The Blue band represents unity of the whole in Congress. 13 stars in the center of Glory (or the sun's rays) breaking through the clouds is for the new nation taking it's place among the sovereign powers. The olive branch with 13 leaves represents peace, while the 13 arrows represent defense or war. The head of the eagle faces toward the olive branch as a signal that while we will fight, we prefer peace. The top of the shield represents Congress. The eagle's head represents the Executive Branch. The 9 tail feathers represent the Judiciary. E Pluribus Unum "One out of many", or unity.

On the Reverse side of the Great Seal (on the left of the one dollar bill back) the pyramid represents firmness, the durable building of a new nation. It represents material strength. The unfinished top allows for growth, the goal of perfection, the development of a nation not complete, leaving room for additional states. The triangle is the symbol of the Trinity. The eye is Providence or the eternal eye of God and the virtue of putting the spiritual above the material. (The all seeing eye is also a Masonic symbol; Franklin and Washington were Masons...if you get to downtown Detroit, see the statue of Washington in front of the Old Mariners Church by the Renaissance Center; he is wearing his Masonic Apron) The rays of light are the light of the universe. Annuit Coeptis means "God has favored our undertakings." Novus Ordo Seclorum means "A new order of the ages." The Roman numerals are 1776. As an interesting note, Franklin, Jefferson, Adams and others who influenced our Great Seal intended it to be an allegory representing the destiny of our new nation. The eagle may have been chosen as our symbol partly because of native American beliefs associating the eagle with heaven. The soaring eagle is a symbol of a soul soaring into heaven.

OUR COVER THIS MONTH:

Check collecting is becoming increasingly popular, especially if the checks have attractive vignettes. If they are Western memorabilia as well, then they're even more fun. This check was made out on the Rocky Mountain National Bank of Central City, Colorado and was payable in New York. The detail is exceptional, and under a glass you can really see the terror in this trapped warrior's eyes as the mother bear attacks. The 2 cent revenue stamp was engraved right on the check, no doubt to save the effort of licking and sticking.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This is the year for the ANA to be held in Detroit and we'd like all the PMCM members that can possibly put together an exhibit to do so in order to display a lot of Michigan notes. I have purchased a plaque just for this 103rd ANA Show to be given out to the PMCM member who wins the "best of show". It has a Detroit Bank Note of 1806 on it which was Michigan's first obsolete bank note. It has Judge

Woodward's signature as president of the bank and William Flanagan as the cashier. This bank was located at the NW corner of Jefferson and Randolph, which is very close to the current location of Cobo Hall where the ANA Convention will be held July 26-30. Preceding this show there is a pre-ANA show to be held at the Hyatt Regency in Dearborn on July 23-25. During the ANA there will some auctions will be conducted some of the major auction houses: Superior, Heritage, etc., as well as all the various club meetings. There will also be educational forums with many notable speakers. PMCM plans for a roundtable type of presentation and would like any interested members to contact me if you would like to contribute in any way on any topic of your choice.

Before the ANA though, is the MSNS Spring Show to be held in Dearborn at the Hyatt Regency May 20-22. The Spring show is normally held outside the Detroit area, so this is a change from the normal custom. It will be a big show as the Detroit area draws good attendance from both dealers and collectors. I'll be giving out some books for all the PMCM exhibitors, so put together an exhibit and "show off" your treasures for the rest of us to see and admire.

I went to the FUN Show in Florida and acquired a few new bank notes from the auction, but nothing spectacular. All the spectacular Michigan obsoletes for $500 to $600 each and I was left by the wayside. Outstanding notes demanded big prices and go them; especially at the auction when two or more buyers wanted the same note.

I am going on a great vacation to Spain for a week and then to Portugal for a week. This is the way to practice up for my retirement from the field of Dentistry after 35 years. Now I can find more time for my hobbies of hunting, fishing, numismatics, golf and traveling...if this is possible because I have always donated a lot of time to these hobbies that I dearly love. Good Collecting and I hope to see you at these upcoming shows. I'll have a table at all of them, so stop by and say hello.

Regards, Dr. Wallace Lee, President, PMCM.

100 YEARS AGO IN NUMISMATICS

As recorded in the Numismatist, Jan-Mar, 1894:

At that time of course, George F. Heath M.D. of Monroe, Michigan was the Editor of the Numismatist. The pages are old and crumbly as I leaf through them. Content clearly shows much more interest in ancient coins than at the present time. Although most surprising is that the membership listing in the March issue only numbers about 200, including deceased members.

S.H. & H. Chapman of Philadelphia list themselves as Numismatists and antiquarians. They describe themselves as dealers and importers of ancient Greek, and Roman, European and Am. Coins and Medals.

Membership in the ANA involved a 50 cent initiation fee and $1.00 annual dues.

California Gold 1/4 dollar charms were advertised for 30 cents each by E.F. Gambs of San Francisco, CA.

The confessions of a Coin Crank was an interesting article on how a collector got started as a boy of 6 or 7 in 1846. He was sick and his mother gave him a jar of old copper coins to play with...that hooked him and he was still at it in 1894.

An interesting observation: "The motto, E. pluribus unum, was taken from the title page of the Gentleman's Magazine, which prior to the revolution had a large circulation in the British colonies in America."

A more humorous story: "When Oliver Cromwell first coined money, an old cavalier, looking upon one of the new pieces, read this inscription on one side, 'God with us;' on the other side, 'The commonwealth of England.' 'I see,' said he, 'God and the commonwealth are on different sides.' ...Salem Mercury, June 26, 1787.

More fascinating facts: "Mt Vernon, the home of Washington, took its name from Admiral Vernon of the British navy, under whom Lawrence Washington served. The Vernon series of medals are known to all numismatists."

"The Numismatic chronicle is indeed one of the most important aids of history, whether political, commercial or economical." William J. Stillman.

"If nothing had survived of all the sculpture of the ancients, Greek coinage alone would demonstrate that the race to which it owed its existence was more conversant with the qualities of beauty and had a finer spiritual constitution than any other race of which we have any kind of record, we learn from it that when all the surrounding nations were buried in the barbarism of wild or sunk in the heaviness of sensual life, the Greeks were sharing the most intense vitality and the finest mental susceptibilities as well as the purest moral qualities that humankind has ever shown." William J. Stidman

Observations 100 years ago..."all agree that the head of Victoria on the new silver coins of England is the finest ever placed on her coins since her reign."

50 YEARS AGO IN NUMISMATICS

As recorded in the pages of the Numismatic Scrapbook for January-March, 1944: Stack's announced the sale of the Col. E.H. R. Green collection of $5 and $10 gold coins.

Malcolm Chell-Frost of Boston, Mass offered an 1823 unc. half dollar for $1.50; the Celina Coin Co. of Celina, Ohio offered an unc. 1916 Standing Liberty quarter for $40.

Earle Sherwood had an article on "What is a Bungtown?" The answer is a copper coin similar in size to our large cent, or English half penny, offering no promise to pay anything to anybody, resembling the half penny but not closely enough to be a counterfeit.

2 billion ration tokens were to be manufactured in Cincinnati, Ohio; 1,100,000 red tokens for ration change in the purchase of meat and fat and 900,000,000 blue tokens as ration change for processed foods. The original plan was to make the tokens the size of a quarter, they now will be a little smaller than a dime and will cost the government $1.19 per thousand or $2,380,000.

The Wilkes Barre numismatic club was formed with 25 collectors to offer a club in the northeastern Pennsylvania area.

"I would rather be exposed to the inconveniences attending too much liberty than to those attending too small a degree of it." Thomas Jefferson

O.H. Epperson of Jackson, MI was offering complete small cent collections from 1857 to 1943...many including the 1909-S

VDB uncirculated for $100 postpaid!

R. Max Mehl of Fort Worth Texas offered a colonial Pennsylvania $40 note for $1.35. For $4.45 he would sell you an unc. New Jersey six shilling note signed by John Hart, a signer of the Declaration of Independence.
